

Procedure – Policy 166 – Board Members Use of E-Mail

Subject to this policy and other applicable Board policies, under no circumstances shall Board members use e-mail to interactively communicate among themselves regarding Board business or subjects within the Board's realm of authority or which could be construed as an invasion of privacy if the messages were to be monitored by another party.

Updated: 05/27/2009